1. Employees must safeguard their ability to make objective, fair, and impartial decisions and, therefore, should not accept any benefits of any sort under circumstances in which it could be inferred by a reasonable observer that the benefit was intended to influence a pending or future decision or to reward a past decision.

2. Employees must avoid any conduct, whether in the context of business, financial or social relationships, which may undermine the public trust, whether that conduct is unethical or lends itself to the appearance of ethical impropriety.

3. In carrying out their official duties and responsibilities, all employees must work solely for the public good, striving vigilantly to avoid even the appearance that their actions are motivated by private or personal gain.

4. Employees are responsible for familiarizing themselves with and adhering to the policies and procedures contained in the State Board Policy Manual located at https://tcsg.edu/tcsgpolicy/tcsg_policy_manual.pdf.

5. The Commissioner of the Technical College System of Georgia is fully responsible to the Office of the Governor for system-wide compliance with the Executive Order on Ethics.

6. The Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners, and College Presidents are responsible for compliance with the Executive Order on Ethics within their respective areas of responsibility. B. Conflicts of Interest:

1. Employees shall make every effort to avoid even the appearance of a conflict of interest. An appearance of a conflict of interest exists when a reasonable person would conclude from the circumstance that the employee's ability to protect the public interest or perform public duties is compromised by personal interests. An appearance of a conflict of interest could exist even in the absence of a true conflict of interest.

2. A "participant" includes, but is not limited to, an owner, shareholder, partner, employee or agency of a business entity involved in the proceeding. If the employee is uncertain whether the relationship justifies recusal, the employee shall disclose the relationship to the person presiding over the proceeding. The presiding officer shall determine the extent to which, if any, the employee will be permitted to participate. If the affected employee is the person presiding, then the vice chair or other substitute presiding officer shall make the determination.

3. Employees shall not directly or indirectly ask, accept, demand, solicit, seek or receive a financial or other benefit for themselves or for others in return for being influenced in the discharge of their official duties and responsibilities.

4. A conflict of interest may also arise in situations in which an employee engages in an outside activity/business activity which, while not necessarily incompatible, inconsistent, or impermissible in conjunction with his/her official duties and responsibilities may, nevertheless, interfere with the employee’s ability to properly perform his/her official duties.

5. Questions regarding situations or circumstances which may result in an actual or perceived conflict of interest should be directed to the System Office's General Counsel or Ethics Officer.
